"Daughters of Ireland: Irish Women and the Independence Movement, 1900-1918"

A Presentation by Karen Sonnelitter, Assistant Professor of History, Siena College

Event at 7 PM February 24, 2016 at the Irish Hibernian Center, 375 Ontario St., Albany, NY 12208

This is part of a continuing series of events in Irish History leading to and beyond the Irish Rising in 1916. Most of our presentations have highlighted the men involved in the Rising. Dr Sonnelitter will address the role of women in the search for Irish independence.

Karen Sonnelitter completed her PhD in history at Purdue University and is presently an Assistant Professor of History at Siena College. Her first book "Charity Movements in Eighteenth-Century Ireland: Philanthropy and Improvement" will be published in the summer of 2016.
